Ross Tyrie,
Craig Schuster
Larry Fitzgerald.

Baltimore's favorite modern and original rock band

Since 1997 Crushing Day has been in the forefront of the Baltimore music scene, playing over 200 shows per year. Though mainly concentrated in the Baltimore/Annapolis area, they regularly visit Ocean City, MD and have traveled the East coast from Killington, VT to Key West, FL.

Crushing Day has repeatedly finished atop the 'Maryland Music Monthly' publication's reader's poll as the one of the top modern rock bands in the region. In 2001 and 2002 they won the honor, finishing first in a Baltimore/Washington, DC region that boasts an abundance of music talent.

Crushing Day has also been featured on 98 ROCK and has headlined numerous events for both 98 ROCK and 99.1 WHFS. Crushing Day has shared the stage with national acts, Puddle of Mudd, SR-71, DaDa, The Posies, Driven' and Cryin', Ace Freehley, Lita Ford, Child's Play, Jimies Chicken Shack, The Pat McGee Band, The Ravyns, and Dig.
